What Happened at the Mela:

A report written by Ian (one of the helpers):

"I was helping out at the Mela festival.

I had my photo taken with Chris and Dave and the staff at the Mela for Courier newspaper. (see right)

I was talking to the people, and handing out leaflets to everyone.

The organisers gave me and Chris a Mela t-shirt to wear.

I had a Mela bag, the organisers also gave Chris a bag.(see right)

I wore lots of suncream as it was such a hot and sunny day.

I had a look at the stalls, and helped the children to make twirlers from different colour ribbons.

I loved helping out and would love to help next year at the festival."

Mela is a community event celebrates the diversity of the borough through music, food and dance. It is organised by Tunbridge Wells Borough Council.
